

Chorleywood Parish Council, located at South Lodge, Rickmansworth Road, is responsible for delivering high quality services to its parishioners.

Chorleywood Common consists of around 200 acres of mixed habitats, including ancient acid grassland and heathland, neutral grassland, Chalk grassland, conservation grazing, seven ponds, scrub and secondary woodland.

CONSERVATION RANGER

£24,238 ~ £28,508 (career grade) + London Weighting

This position will be subject to a six month probationary period

Much of the grassland and all of the ponds are under a Higher Level Stewardship Scheme with Natural England and as such the Conservation Ranger will be working towards achieving targets laid out within the agreement and the Common Green Action Plan to increase the ecological value of our precious habitats and preserve them for future generations to enjoy.

We are therefore looking for someone with a passion for British Natural History and good knowledge of habitats and species, Level 3 in Countryside Management/Conservation or significant practical experience in land, conservation and access management. Practical experience in use of machinery, chainsaw qualification and the ability to operate agricultural machinery is essential. You will need good people skills, with experience in planning, deliverance and undertaking of outdoor education projects.

ASSISTANT PARISH RANGER

£18,910 ~ £23,498 (career grade) + London Weighting

This position will be subject to a six month probationary period

Part of a small friendly team, you will carry out a wide range of grounds maintenance duties mainly on Chorleywood Common. Enthusiastic, and flexible, you should have at least two years relevant experience and be able to work with a minimum of supervision and prioritise your workload. A passion for the environment plus good interpersonal skills is essential together with chainsaw qualifications and the ability to operate agricultural machinery.

Hours are 8.00am~ 4.00 pm Monday to Friday with half an hour for lunch.

Salary is subject to experience and qualifications.
